

I would like you to NOT pre-empt Indian law regarding "telemarketing. I consider ANY telemarketing calls to my home as an infringement of my privacy. This is my private home and my private phone line.

Indiana law has been very effective . If changes are to be made, I would like to see federal law that is at least as stringent as Indiana.
Thank you.